

The Luce County Government Building is now reopened to the public effective Tuesday may 26, 2020

For the safety of our employee's masks are required and offices will be limited to one person from the public at a time. Please refrain from leaning across counters and obey social distancing while you wait.